Minor Accidents Are Investigated

Two minor accidents occurred in Hope yesterday, one during the parade, City Police said. At 3rd and Hervey an auto driven by B. H. LeCount, Rt. 4, Prescott, pulled onto Highway 87 from a service station and hit the side of an auto driven by Wilburn E. Tate, Hope. There was considerable damage to the Tate vehicle, City Officers Ward and Sinyard reported. Just after the parade an auto driven by Charles B. Jackson, Pine Bluff, ran into the back end of another owned by Leland Martin Jr. of Mabelville which had stopped at a traffic light. Damage was minor. Officers Brown and Ward charged Jackson with following too close.

U.S. Believes China Now Has Nuclear Bomb

By LEWIS GULICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. sources believe that although Red China now has the capability of setting off its first atomic explosion it is still years away from becoming a major nuclear power. Thursday, the Peking regime's 15th anniversary, is the earliest date in Washington speculation on the timing of China's nuclear debut. This guess is based on the Communists' penchant for unveiling new developments on their anniversaries. Other estimates ranged into 1965. While eventual Communist Chinese success in building an atomic bomb has been predicted for years, an unusual statement by Secretary of State Dean Rusk Tuesday disclosed a recent conclusion by U.S. strategists that Peking's preparations have reached the point where it can fire its nuclear device at any time.

U.S. sources declined to specify what new intelligence data has convinced them that the Chinese Reds have arrived at the edge of an atomic blast.

But having reached this conclusion, it was said, the State Department put out Rusk's statement as a way of toning down the reverberations from a

Estes Report Critical of Agri. Dept.

By W.B. RAGSDALE JR.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Investigations subcommittee, reporting on its two-year-old probe of Billie Sol Estes, criticized today what it called "disinterest and stagnation" in the Agriculture Department's handling of the Texas wheeler-dealer's phony cotton deals. The report said there were many events in the Pecos, Tex., financier's cotton acreage allotment deals "which would have served as a warning to a vigilant organization." But it said that once Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman was notified of the situation, the department took prompt action to halt Estes' scheming. Estes currently is free under bond, while appealing state and federal convictions for fraud involving his dealings with liquid fertilizer.

The subcommittee's report did not charge that favoritism was given Estes by department officials.

But — in separate views — two Republican members of the subcommittee, Sens. Carl T. Curtis of Nebraska and Karl E. Mundt of South Dakota, contended that "the free-wheeling, gift-giving Billie Sol Estes, received favoritism on the county level, state level, and in the U.S. Department of agriculture."

Curtis and Mundt said the department was "not only inept in its efforts to cope" with Estes but "in many instances it was actually a companion to this fraud through the actions, or failure to act, of its officials in high office."

The subcommittee that conducted the investigation two years ago agreed on the basic report. But additional statements were filed by Mundt and Curtis, by Chairman John L. McClellan, and by Sen. J. William Fulbright.

Dick Sisler, Johnny Keane, Gene Mauch. Three managers. One thought: Win them all. "Five more victories and we're the National League champions," said Sisler of the first-place Cincinnati Reds.

"Five games left to play — if we lose one, we're in trouble," said Keane of the second-place St. Louis Cardinals.

"We still have four games left — I think it'd be a pretty good idea if we won them all," said Mauch of the third-place Philadelphia Phillies.

Mauch, however, had to add: "We've won four in a row a lot more than we've lost eight straight."

No. 8 came Monday night at the hands of the Cardinals, who rode the hitting of Ken Boyer and Bill White to a 5-1 victory in the opener of a key three-game series and exchanged places with the floundering Phillies.

That pulled the Cardinals to within one game of the Reds, who were not scheduled, and dropped the Phillies into third place for the first time since May 5, 1½ games behind the leaders in the tight struggle.

The chase resumes tonight with the Reds opening a three-game series at home against the Cardinals, and the Phillies opening a three-game series at home against Pittsburgh. Cincinnati will send rookie Bill McCool, 6-3, after its

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL Amendment No. 52 (Legislative)

That the following is hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, and upon being submitted to the electors of the State for approval or rejection at the next general election for Representatives and Senators, if a majority of the electors voting thereon, at such an election, adopt such amendment, the same shall become a part of the Constitution of the State of Arkansas to wit:

Provided, however, there shall never be levied a tax on the taxable real and personal property; (a) of any industrial district which, together with any tax levied under the provisions of Amendment No. 49 to the Constitution, shall exceed five (5) mills on the dollar of the assessed valuation thereof; or (b) of any hospital district, which, together with any tax levied under the provisions of Amendment No. 17 to the Constitution, shall exceed five (5) mills on the dollar of the assessed valuation thereof, except that, the full said five (5) mills being levied under Amendment No. 17, the said hospital district may levy an additional tax of not to exceed one (1) mill on the dollar of the assessed valuation of the taxable real and personal property in said hospital district. Provided further, that the total taxes levied under this Amendment and under Amendment No. 49 to the Constitution on the taxable real and personal property in any industrial district shall never exceed six (6) mills on the dollar of the assessed valuation thereof.

SECTION 3. To such extent and in such manner as the General Assembly may provide, taxes collected under Amendment No. 32 to the Constitution on the taxable real and personal property in any hospital district shall be used for maintaining, operating and supporting district hospitals.

Palmer Continues Lead Moneywise

DUNEDIN, Fla. (AP) — Although Arnold Palmer has played in only 22 tournaments, he continues to lead in winnings with $110,743, the Professional Golfers Association reported today.

Palmer won two and was among the first five in 14 tournaments. Jack Nicklaus, with $107,717 in winnings, also played in 23 tournaments, won four and was among the first five in 15.

Bill Casper Jr. was in third place with $79,018 from 27 tournaments. He won three and was among the first five finishers in 12.

Miller County was named for James Miller, first territorial governor of Arkansas.

10th straight victory, against the Pirates' veteran hurler, Bob Friend, 12-18.

The Phillies and Cardinals, who now have reeled off six straight victories, resume with Ray Sadecki, 19-10, expected to start for St. Louis. Dennis Bennett, 12-13, has been tapped to halt the Phillies' amazing nose-dive.

The American League race also resumes with Detroit invading New York for a two-night doubleheader with the first-place Yankees. Baltimore and Chicago, both three games back, are at home to Washington and Los Angeles, respectively.

Only one other game was played in the majors Monday, the Los Angeles Dodgers edging the Chicago Cubs 2-1.

But the spotlight was at St. Louis, where Keane remained cautious, refusing even to mention the word pennant.

Keane, of course, has been here before. Last year, on Sept. 15, the Cardinals closed to within one game of the Los Angeles Dodgers. That's as close as they came.

What happened against the Phillies was that Boyer slapped two key doubles and White collected three singles.

The Phillies started Chris Short, who had beaten the Cardinals three times without a loss and had allowed them only two runs in six previous appearances. But he proved no puzzle this time.

He was touched for a run in the second inning when singles by White and Julian Javier plus a sacrifice fly by Mike Shannon, put the Cardinals ahead 1-0. And he was touched for a run in the fourth on a double by Boyer, White's single and Javier's grounder.

Short, 17-9, then was driven from the mound in the sixth when Boyer again doubled and White again singled for another run.

Shannon's two-run single in the eighth inning wrapped up the scoring against reliever Ed Roebuck.

At Los Angeles, the Dodgers broke a 1-1 tie in the ninth on singles by Bart Shirley and pinch hitter Dick Tracewski around a sacrifice. That gave Howie Reed the victory and tagged Dick Ellsworth with the loss.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL Amendment No. 53 (Legislative)

That the following is hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Arkansas, and upon being submitted to the electors of the State for approval or rejection at the next general election for Representatives and Senators, if a majority of the electors voting thereon, at such an election, adopt such amendment, the same shall become a part of the Constitution of the State of Arkansas to wit:

SECTION 1. The first unnumbered paragraph of Section 4 of Article 12 of the Constitution is hereby amended to read as follows: "No municipal corporation shall be authorized to pass any laws contrary to the general laws of the State; and except as otherwise specifically authorized by amendments to the Constitution, no county shall levy any tax on real or personal property to a greater extent, in one year, than one per cent of the assessed value of the same."

"SECTION 2. Section 9 of Article 16 of the Constitution is hereby amended to read as follows: "Except as otherwise specifically authorized by amendments to the Constitution, no county shall levy any tax on real or personal property to a greater extent, in one year, than one per cent of the assessed value of the same; provided however, that not less than three-eighths of the amount of any such tax shall, as specified by the county taxing authority, be used exclusively for the construction, reconstruction and maintenance of roads and bridges in the County Highway System."

"SECTION 3. Amendments No. 3, 22, and 27 to the Constitution are hereby repealed."

"SECTION 4. The provisions of this amendment shall take effect and be in full force on and after November 4, 1964."

Texas Back on Top of Grid Polls

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Ara Parseghian doesn't believe in marking time. It took him only 60 minutes to snap Notre Dame out of a five-year coma.

The Irish haven't had a winning football season since 1958 — they were 2-7 last year — but they're off to a flying start under new coach Parseghian and it shows up in the national rankings.

Note Dame rode last Saturday's 31-7 romp over favored Wisconsin into ninth place among major-college eleven in The Associated Press' first regular-season poll of sports writers and broadcasters.

Meanwhile, Texas, given lukewarm support in pre-season balloting despite its 1963 national championship, reclaimed the top spot. The Longhorns blanketed Texas Tech 23-0 and climbed from fourth to first place.

Both Mississippi and Oklahoma, Nos. 1 and 2 in the pre-season poll, were ambushed and dumped from the top ten. Kentucky surprised Ole Miss 27-21 and Southern California, one of Notre Dame's 1963 victims, took over the runner-up spot by trouncing the Sooners 40-14.

The Trojans actually outdrew Texas 17-14 in first-place balloting but the Longhorns came out on top by virtue of twice as many runner-up votes. Texas amassed 395 points to 357 for USC and 347 for third-place Illinois.

The Illini, hard-pressed before defeating California 20-14 in their opener, and fifth-ranked Ohio State, 27-8 victory over Southern Methodist in its debut, were the only teams to hold their original positions. Alabama jumped from sixth to fourth, Navy from 10th to sixth and Auburn from eighth to seventh.

The top ten, with first-place votes in parentheses and points on a 10-9-8 etc. basis:

1. Texas (14)	395
2. Southern Calif. (17)	357
3. Illinois (7)	347
4. Alabama (4)	316
5. Ohio State (2)	285
6. Navy (1)	219
7. Auburn (2)	86
8. Michigan	106
9. Notre Dame	103
10. Washington (2)	73

Pressure Is on McKinley to Keep Cup

Associated Press Sports Writer

CLEVELAND (AP) — The pressure is on Chuck McKinley today in America's faltering bid to keep the Davis Cup — and the 5-foot-8, 160-pound bundle of bounce from San Antonio, Texas, loves it.

"This is the kind of situation I like — I'm looking forward to it," McKinley said of his impending match with the formidable Roy Emerson of Australia which will decide the residence of the big tennis bowl for the next year.

McKinley and Emerson clash this afternoon on the green clay court of Clark Stadium in the fifth and deciding match of the Davis Cup Challenge Round.

SECTION 1. Section 1 of Article 6 of the Constitution shall read as follows: "The executive department of this State shall consist of a Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General, Secretary of State, Treasurer of State, and Auditor of State, all of whom shall keep their offices at the seat of government, and hold their offices for the term of two years and until their successors are elected and qualified; and the annual salaries of the aforesaid officers shall be as follows: Governor, $18,000; Lieutenant Governor, $3,500; Attorney General, $12,000; Secretary of State, Treasurer of State, and Auditor of State, $10,000 each."

"SECTION 2. The following provisions of the Constitution as they existed prior to the effective date of this amendment are hereby repealed: Section 1, 12 and 13 of Article 6; Section 11 of Article 19; Section 1 and 6 of Amendment 6; and Amendments 15 and 37."

postponed from Sunday because of rain and cold.

The battle will break the 2-2 tie which resulted when Fred Stolle, Australia's No. 2 man, beat Dennis Ralston of Bakersfield, Calif., in a stirring five-setter Sunday 7-5, 6-3, 3-6, 9-11, 6-4.

Most observers felt that America's hopes of retaining the cup went down with Ralston, because Emerson is believed unbeatable among the present crop of amateurs.

"I don't think so," McKinley said. "Certainly, Roy should be favored over me, but I feel he can be beaten."

"I'm in an excellent spot. If I lose, people will shrug their shoulders and say I was supposed to. If I win, I'm a hero. I intend to go out there and play a heck of a match."

Vic Seixas, the U.S. captain, said he thought McKinley has a very good chance.

Emerson, a 27-year-old Queenslander, has clearly established himself as the world's No. 1 amateur. He has won the Australian, Wimbledon and United States championships. He has won 47 matches in a row since he was beaten in the semi-finals of the French tournament by Italy's Nicola Pietrangeli.

Furthermore, he has been something of a nemesis to McKinley, beating the chunky Trinity University graduate in five of their seven head-to-head meetings, all on grass.

Phils-Story of Great Collapse in Baseball

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The greatest collapse in the history of baseball.

This is the only way to describe the amazing slide of the Philadelphia Phillies. Only a week ago the Phils were riding high, leading the National League by 8½ games.

Today, following their eighth straight loss, a 5-1 defeat by the St. Louis Cardinals, the Phils were in third place. They were perilously close to elimination in the most incredible finish of any National League pennant race.

The Cardinals, all but counted out last week, find themselves just one game behind the league-leading Cincinnati Reds, who only a few days ago would have been content to finish second.

This crazy-quilted pennant race has the principals so confused they simply have given up trying to figure it out.

Cardinal Manager Johnny Keane threw up his hands when he was asked Monday night what his team's victory over the floundering Phillies meant to the Cards.

"I've given up trying to figure it out," he said resignedly. "This thing is so tight, I just don't dare give an opinion, let alone make prediction. Who knows what's going to happen very few of his players got passing percentages. The Hogs came from behind to beat Tulsa 31-22.

Broyles was asked to single out some top Arkansas performers in the Hurricane game, and he cited Jerry Lamb, Jim Lindsey and Bobby Nix on offense; and Charles Daniel, Jim Johnson and Ronnie Caveness on defense. Caveness, whose outstanding linebacking was capped by a 12-yard touchdown runback of an intercepted pass, had a "great game," Broyles said.

Broyles said quarterbacks Bill Gray and Fred Marshall would be able to play against Texas Christian University Saturday at Fort Worth.

Mickey O'Quinn, an assistant freshman football coach, gave the Razorbacks a scouting report on TCU. He said if the Horned Frogs quit fumbling they would have a good ball club.

Texarkana Back in First in Grid Polls

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Texarkana's tough Razorbacks edged into first place in this week's Associated Press Arkansas high school football poll.

But Pine Bluff's Zebras, edging upwards through the poll as they edge through Big 12 Conference opposition, were only three points away on the second rung.

Pine Bluff topped Fort Smith from No. 1, but the Grizzlies fell only to third place, 13 points back of Pine Bluff, which played to a tie with Texarkana in the first Big 12 game this season.

The Razorbacks, the Zebras tomorrow?

"All I know is, we've got to keep winning. We can't afford to lose another game. We have five games left to play, two with Philadelphia and three with New York. If we lose one, we're in trouble. If we lose two, we're out of it."

The Phils have reached the point of almost no return. Two down in the loss column with only four games left to play — two in Cincinnati following two more here. They must win all to stand a chance.

This would constitute a near miracle, judging from the Phils' ragged performance Monday night. They were limited to five hits by Bob Gibson and Barney Schultz, and contributed two glaring errors in the field to boot.

Gene Mauch, the Phils' distraught manager, refused to give up. Despite the ordeal, he obviously was undergoing, he remained calm.

"We've won four in a row before," he said. "We can do it again."

"Sure, we've lost eight in a row, but we haven't quit. You can't blame this defeat on pressure."

"We didn't beat ourselves. Gibson simply was too much for us. He pitched a strong game."

On paper, the Cards figure to face the softest opposition of the three contenders, closing the season with three games against the last-place New York Mets.

"I don't look at it that way," said Keane. "At this stage of the race, you mustn't take any club lightly. If anything, you have to get yourself up more for a second division club. They take great delight in knocking off the front guy."

The AP's first poll showed Pine Bluff, the defending Class AAA champion which hasn't lost a game since 1961, in ninth place. A victory over Stuttgart moved Pine Bluff up to fourth.

Minor Accidents Are Investigated

Two minor accidents occurred in Hope yesterday, one during the parade, City Police said. At 3rd and Hervey an auto driven by B. H. LeCount, Rt. 4, Prescott, pulled onto Highway 67 from a service station and hit the side of an auto driven by Wilburn E. Tate, Hope. There was considerable damage to the Tate vehicle, City Officers Ward and Sinyard reported. Just after the parade an auto driven by Charles B. Jackson, Pine Bluff, ran into the back end of another owned by Leland Martin Jr. of Mabelville which had stopped at a traffic light. Damage was minor. Officers Brown and Ward charged Jackson with following too close.

U.S. Believes China Now Has Nuclear Bomb

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. sources believe that although Red China now has the capability of setting off its first atomic explosion it is still years away from becoming a major nuclear power. Thursday, the Peking regime's 15th anniversary, is the earliest date in Washington speculation on the timing of China's nuclear debut. This guess is based on the Communists' penchant for unveiling new developments on their anniversaries. Other estimates ranged into 1965. While eventual Communist Chinese success in building an atomic bomb has been predicted for years, an unusual statement by Secretary of State Dean Rusk Tuesday disclosed a recent conclusion by U.S. strategists that Peking's preparations have reached the point where it can fire its nuclear device at any time. U.S. sources declined to specify what new intelligence data has convinced them that the Chinese Reds have arrived at the edge of an atomic blast. But having reached this conclusion, it was said, the State Department put out Rusk's statement as a way of toning down the reverberations from a Chinese nuclear explosion when it does come. Rusk said China's first atomic shot "might occur in the near future" and if so, "we shall know about it and will make the information public."

"The United States," he added, "has fully anticipated the possibility of Peking's entry into the nuclear weapons field and has taken it into full account in determining our military posture and our own nuclear weapons program."

U.S. sources made these points: —The initial nuclear test would still leave Red China a long way to go before achieving a first-class nuclear arsenal. By exploding a bomb now, Peking would use up most of its present atomic fuel supply. Its fuel manufacturing capability is limited and years more would be needed to build up a stockpile. The Chinese have yet to develop the sophisticated rockets which an atomic power nation needs to deliver warheads. —Peking could use its early atomic development for propaganda and nuclear blackmail against non-atomic Asian neighbors. —China's first nuclear explosion may be relatively small — the first U. S. test in 1945 was 19 kilotons — and is expected to take place above ground. —U.S. monitors are confident they can spot a Chinese explosion above ground. How long after a Chinese explosion the U.S. announcement of it would come depends on how much cross checking of the monitoring information is required.

Estes Report Critical of Agri. Dept.

By W.B. RAGSDALE JR.
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Investigations subcommittee, reporting on its two-year-old probe of Billie Sol Estes, criticized today what it called "disinterest and stagnation" in the Agriculture Department's handling of the Texas wheeler-dealer's phony cotton deals. The report said there were many events in the Pecos, Tex., financier's cotton acreage allotment deals "which would have served as a warning to a vigilant organization."

But it said that once Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman was notified of the situation, the department took prompt action to halt Estes' scheming. Estes currently is free under bond while appealing state and federal convictions for fraud involving his dealings with liquid fertilizer. The subcommittee's report did not charge that favoritism was given Estes by department officials. But — in separate views — two Republican members of the subcommittee, Sens. Carl T. Curtis of Nebraska and Karl E. Mundt of South Dakota, contended that "the free-wheeling, gift-giving Billie Sol Estes, received favoritism on the county level, state level, and in the U.S. Department of agriculture."

Curtis and Mundt said the department was "not only inept in its efforts to cope" with Estes but "in many instances it was actually a companion to this fraud through the actions, or failure to act, of its officials in high office."

The subcommittee that conducted the investigation two years ago agreed on the basic report. But additional statements were filed by Mundt and Curtis, by Chairman John L. McClellan.

United Fund Report Made to Leaders

A group of Hope citizens interested in the continuation of the Hempstead County United Fund, met Monday evening at the Community Room of the First National Bank to hear a report from President Clifford Franks about the Fund operation for the past year and the result of a recent poll taken to determine if it would be continued.

Mr. Franks told the group that so far this year approximately $12,000.00 had been disbursed to participating organizations and that another division of Funds would be made toward the end of the year. Agencies participating in the United Fund are:

The Salvation Army, Boy Scouts Girl Scouts, Red Cross, USO, United Cerebral Palsy, Arkansas Mental Health Association, Underprivileged Children, (administered by the Hope Junior Auxiliary), Girl Scouts Local, (a fund for the expense connected with the Girl Scouts Little House at Fair Park). At least one other Health Agency has indicated that they want to be included in the above agencies.

In addition to the above agencies, the Fund has disbursed approximately $1,200.00 over the past two or three years for the relief of local citizens suffering from cancer. More than $200.00 has been paid to a Little Rock hospital for treatment for a local Multiple Sclerosis case and the Fund has a small balance available to be used for local Polio and heart cases where needed.

Mr. Franks also pointed out that 40 percent of the money allotted to the Salvation Army and Red Cross stays in Hope, all of the Underprivileged Children's fund is spent here as is all of the Girl Scout Local fund. A Boy Scout executive for the area lives in Hope and his annual salary is in excess of the amount raised locally. "This is mentioned in order to show that a good portion of the money raised through The United Fund is spent locally," said Mr. Franks.

New officers elected Monday were Cecil O'Steen, president and Guy Grigg, Campaign Chairman. Other officers and some additional Board members will be named within the next few days at which time plans will be announced for the annual fall drive for funds for the year 1965.

"DRIVE OUT!"

It Happens a Million Times a Day But It's Always the Male Who Has to Step Aside

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — It happens at least a million times a day in America. Every day.

A man and a woman inadvertently bump into each other. Neither is to blame.

But what happens?

"Excuse me, ma'am," the man says, and steps aside.

And what does the woman do?

Well, in a great majority of cases she either glares through the male miscreant as if he didn't exist, or else summarily dismisses him with a surly remark, such as, "You could at least look where you're going."

And as she strides on in female triumph she leaves behind her an embittered man in whose soul there has withered another petal on the flower of civility.

No matter how often they are confronted with the problem, men can't quite reconcile themselves to the bad public manners of women who really should know better.

We all are familiar with the old story of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde.

Dr. Jekyll was an essentially kind man, a scientist dedicated to the service of humanity. But every time he took a nip from a smoking brew in his laboratory, he emerged a beast. The moral, I have always supposed, is: If you have to drink, put it in a bar — don't make it in the basement.

But this famous 19th century tale has had an infamous 20th century sequel. It is the story of Mrs. Jekyll and Mrs. Hyde.

Mrs. Jekyll is a fine wife and mother. At home she sets an excellent example for her children. People love to be invited to her home, because she is a gracious hostess, attentive to their needs and solicitous of their welfare. As they leave, her men guests often murmur, "That lucky Dr. Jekyll — to have such a wonderful woman as his wife."

But when Mrs. Jekyll leaves her home — no matter whether she has had a nip or two from a bottle in her kitchen laboratory — a sudden change comes over her.

She turns into Mrs. Hyde. Gone is her sweet courtesy, her gentle airs, her consideration for others. A baleful transformation has taken place.

Outwardly, she still looks to other women like Mrs. Jekyll. But to men she encounters she looks like Mrs. Hyde — an unpredictable monster with the manners of a fishwife and the conduct of a sabre-toothed tiger.

She prowls the streets and stores poking strange men in their eyes with her umbrella, stepping on their toes with her spiked heels, elbowing them aside in restaurants, rushing ahead of them to get a taxi.

After a hard day of abusing and bruising all men who happen to stand in her path, she returns home, and takes off the mask of Mrs. Hyde. When Dr. Jekyll enters, there is sweet, angel-faced Mrs. Jekyll, waiting to put on his slippers.

But why does Mrs. Hyde act this way to men in public? Some say it's because her shoes are too tight. Some say it's because she just secretly hates and resents the natural superiority of man over woman.

Whatever the reason, most men are getting awfully tired of the Mrs. Hydes — and the Miss Hydes — of this world. They are not going to get away with it forever.

There'll come a day!

Estes Report

Clellan, D-Ark., and by Sens. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., and Edmund D. Mains.

Estes, who once claimed he was worth $50 million, was a far-flung operator, one of the largest storers of government grain and dealers in liquid fertilizer.

His empire, valued once at $150 million, collapsed in the spring of 1962 as criminal charges were lodged against him and creditors pressed him.

The Agriculture Department pulled the rug out from under the Pecos financier when it canceled grain storage contracts due to pay him more than $5 million a year. Eventually the remnants of his operations were auctioned for $5.8 million.

Of prime interest to Senate investigators was his acquisition of thousands of acres of valuable cotton acreage planting allotments in complex land purchases and lease deals the Agriculture Department subsequently said were illegal.

When called before the committee last November, Estes refused to answer questions about his dealings with government officials. The hearings first opened in the summer of 1962.

The committee sought to determine if political influence helped Estes amass his fortune.

Estes' next trial is set for Nov. 9 in Dallas. In this case he is accused of lying to the government about his finances in order to obtain additional contracts for storing surplus grain.

Estes currently is free on bond.

Crawford County originally contained a large part of the present state of Oklahoma.

Alston Fired Often, Never Lost His Job

By CHARLES MAHER

Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Walter Alston stands alone today among major league managers, the only member of his precarious profession to be sentenced to certain dismissal a dozen times without ever losing his job.

He reminds you of an old radio comic who, in the role of the dauntless D. A., burst alone into a room infested with desperados. You heard a withering, half-minute torrent of Tommygun fire and then, astonishingly, the voice of the D.A., announcing with measured detachment: "After the ruffians had been subdued."

And so Alston has survived another seige of rumors suggesting that the odds on his returning as manager of the Los Angeles Dodgers next season were only slightly more favorable than his chances of being elected Miss America.

The Dodgers, who last year won the pennant by six games and the World Series in four straight, have an excellent chance to become the first team in modern National League history to dive from first place to seventh in the space of a year.

Estes' next trial is set for Nov. 9 in Dallas. In this case he is accused of lying to the government about his finances in order to obtain additional contracts for storing surplus grain.

Highlights in History of Today

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Wednesday, Sept. 30, the 274th day of 1964. There are 92 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1938, the Munich Pact was signed by British Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain, French Premier Edouard Daladier, Italian Premier Benito Mussolini and Germany's Adolf Hitler. "Peace in our time" was the expression of the day as Hitler forced the world to accept his partitioning of Czechoslovakia.

On this date
In 1787, the Columbia left Boston, the first ship to carry the American flag around the world.

In 1846, ether was first used as an anesthetic by Boston dentist William Morton, in extracting a patient's tooth.

In 1914, the United States flag was flown for the first time in World War I, at Toulouse, France, by American members of the French Foreign Legion.

In 1940, British Prime Minister Winston Churchill declared the restoration of Czechoslovakia's liberties to be one of the principal aims of the war.

In 1954, the Navy submarine Nautilus—the first atomic-powered vessel—was commissioned.

Blytheville May Get a Large Plant

BLYTHERVILLE, Ark. (AP)—This Northeast Arkansas river city is being considered as the site of an anhydrous ammonia fertilizer plant, apparently by Continental Oil Co.

The name of the firm has not been made public by officials but Continental has said it will build such a plant. It didn't say where. Engineers have been making soil tests in Blytheville to learn if construction would be feasible near the Mississippi River.

"We are one of several sites under consideration for this major industry," said a spokesman for the Blytheville Chamber of Commerce.

"We have not been assured that we have been selected and we don't expect any announcement on it within at least a week," the spokesman said.

It was reported that the first phase of construction would cost $30 million and would put 85 to 90 persons to work. The chamber of commerce said there had been no estimate as to how many people would be employed when the plant is completed.

The Memphis Commercial-Appeal said today that the plant would employ between 1,500 and 2,000, and would cost $100 million.

The chamber is working on acquiring 1,000 acres of land on the river.

Mayor Jimmie Edwards asked Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett for a ruling on whether the city could condemn land needed for such an industry, even though the land lies outside the city.

Bennett said the city could do this.

"As of now, the city doesn't contemplate that condemnation will be necessary," Edwards said.

The Commercial-Appeal said an initial $40 million bond issue would get the plant started. Separate issues for the other $60 million would be voted on in later elections, the newspaper said.

The plant reportedly would produce 1,000 tons of ammonia fertilizer a day and use the Mississippi River to transport it up and down the delta.

Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co. is building a $33 million anhydrous ammonia plant at Helena.

"DEAR ABBY"

STALEMATE!

By Abigail Van Buren

Dear Abby: In the 16 years that we have been married, my husband has never written a letter to his parents. I didn't mind writing all the thank-you letters for the gifts they sent our preschool children, but I resented having to write letters for their 37-year-old son. He was always too "busy" to write, but he found time to do the things he wanted to do. Last year I became so disgusted with his juvenile attitude that I finally told him that if his parents were going to hear from us, HE would have to write the letters. He didn't write one letter, but each time we'd get a worried letter from them because of the long silence, he would call them long distance. This put a strain on our budget. I wonder how many other wives have husbands like mind, and what do they do about them?

DISGUSTED

Dear Disgusted: Your husband type is legion. And most wives break down and assume the writing role again. The more stubborn ones, cling to their promises, which usually hurt them far more than it does their husbands.

Dear Abby: What do you think of a 47-year-old man who never misses a chance to hold his 17-year-old niece on his lap? I am sending you his picture. Please send it back with your answer. I thank you.

WILMINGTON WIFE

Dear Wife: I am returning your husband's picture. Now send me a picture of the niece and I'll be able to give you a better answer.

Dear Abby: I am 17 and have to get married as soon as possible. My fiancé is in the Army, and is stationed in Germany. He can't get home for a year and a half. He left last month. I can't get over to Germany. Something has to be done, and fast. Is there any way we can be married without being together? No one knows I am in trouble. Not even him. We love each other very much. I can't ask anyone I know to help me. Please put your answer in the paper, Abby.

DESPERATE

Dear Desperate: First, you MUST take your problem to your mother. Then you had better inform your fiancé of your condition. Your clergyman should also be consulted. He will know how a couple can be married, though apart. It has been done in the past.

Brooks Hays Has Talk With Pope

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Brooks Hays, former Arkansas congressman who is a consultant to President Johnson, had a private audience Monday with Pope Paul VI.

Hays is in Europe to address U.S. airmen at Protestant prayer meetings in West Germany. He is brotherhood chairman of the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

Single Men Can't Become Deacons

By BENNET M. BOLTON

VATICAN CITY (AP)—The Vatican Ecumenical Council voted down today a proposal that young single men becoming deacons be allowed to marry, but approved a measure permitting Roman Catholic married men to become deacons.

The vote for married men deacons was 1,598-629. The vote against allowing young deacons to marry was 1,485 was required for approval. The deacons assist priests.

With these decisions out of the way, bishops rallied behind a council declaration on the Jews, asking that it be approved in one form or another. Several insisted it must declare the Jewish people guiltless in the crucifixion of Christ.

Of 20 speakers in the council session in St. Peter's, only one prelate, an archbishop from the Middle East, opposed the declaration in any form.

Two Americans and a Briton—Archbishop Patrick O'Boyle of Washington, Auxiliary Bishop Stephen A. Leven of San Antonio, Tex., and Archbishop John C. Heenan of Westminster—strongly urged that the declaration specifically exonerate Jews of deicide—God killing.

Washington Eulogy

Henry Lee, of Virginia, at the request of Congress, delivered a eulogy of George Washington in December of 1799 containing the famous phrase, "First in war, first in peace, first in the hearts of his countrymen."

Cards Wallop Pills, Go Into Tailor for Lead

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer
Barney Schultz has been playing for 20 years with 18 clubs in 12 different leagues. And he has paid much interest.

"I didn't this year either. There was a time when we were making other clubs if they were interested in Barney," said St. Louis Manager Johnny Keane Tuesday night.

"I had no one paid any attention to us."

Keane kept the 38-year-old infielder specialist — and suddenly he's turned into a key player in the Cardinals' drive toward their first National League pennant since 1946.

Schultz batted out a Cardinal starter for the fifth straight game Tuesday, preserving Ray Sadecki's 20th victory as St. Louis extended its winning streak to seven with a 4-2 victory over floundering Philadelphia.

That pulled the Cardinals into a flat-footed tie for first place with the Cincinnati Reds, who had their winning streak snapped at nine games in a 2-0 loss to Bob Friend and the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The Reds and Cardinals each have four games remaining — and the way Keane figures it, Schultz may be in every one.

"He can pitch nine days in a row if they're short stints," said Keane.

Schultz' big-league record is 19-18 but it's what he's done for the Cardinals that has impressed Keane. Schultz has been in 28 games since late July, pitching 47 2-3 innings and compiling an eye-opening 1.69 earned run average. In these all-important last five games, he's allowed one hit.

The Phillies used six pitchers and 22 players altogether in an attempt to weed out their ninth consecutive defeat. But they couldn't do it and remained 1 1/2 games behind with only three left to play.

Elsewhere, San Francisco remained mathematically alive in the pennant race by edging Houston 5-4 in 11 innings on Matty Alou's first homer in exactly two years, the Chicago Cubs edged the Los Angeles Dodgers 4-3 and Milwaukee downed the New York Mets 7-6.

In the American League, the Chicago White Sox closed to within 2 1/2 games of the first-place New York Yankees edging the Los Angeles Angels 2-1 and Kansas City defeated Minnesota 7-6 in 15 innings. Every one else was rained out.

The Cardinals scored a run in the first inning against Phillies starter Dennis Bennett on Curt Flood's single and a double by Dick Groat, then scored two more in the second on Julian Javier's double, singles by Mike Shannon and Tim McCarver and Flood's grounder.

The Phillies struck back for two runs in the fourth when Sadecki walked the bases loaded and pinch hitter Gus Triandos rapped a single. Then, after Bill White homered for the Cardinals in the sixth, Philadelphia started to peek away at Sadecki again in the seventh.

Johnny Callison, who didn't start because he had the flu, stroked a pinch-hit single with one out. Cookie Rojas grounded out, but a passed ball got Callison to third and Tony Taylor walked.

So did Keane — out to the mound.

"When I left the dugout, I didn't know if I'd bring in Schultz," said Keane. "But by the time I reached the mound, I knew I needed to get one man out, and Schultz was the man to do it."

Richie Allen was the batter. He popped up.

Schultz allowed only a harm-

Casey Takes 4th Term as Met Manager

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — At the ripe old age of 74, Casey Stengel has agreed to a fourth term as manager of the cellar-chained New York Mets.

The announcement came at a Tuesday noon press conference came as no surprise to old Case but apparently it jolted some of his listeners.

"Were you surprised?" a man with a microphone asked Stengel.

"I think you was," said Case. "Why should I be? You don't know my business. I get paid by people who understand my line of business. The people who employ me own the ball club.

less walk the rest of the way.

At Cincinnati, Friend, 18-18, and Reds' rookie Billy McCool were locked in a scoreless duel until the ninth. Friend, who allowed 11 hits, had turned back three at threat — the Reds had two men on in four of the first five innings — while McCool had allowed only three hits.

Bob Bailey opened the ninth with a single for the Pirates and one out later raced to third, on Roberto Clemente's double. McCool then walked Gene Freese and got Donn Clemenon on a foul pop. But Bill Mazeroski rifled a single to center for two runs and the victory.

No radio station owns it.
In typical Stengelese he said his new one-year contract called for a "very splendid raise."

When he was asked how much "splendid" meant, he replied, "I don't have to say."

An educated guess set his salary at $90,000 but, like most sports salaries, this was purely an estimate.

Eternally young for a man who has been in baseball since 1910, Stengel looked hopefully to the future.

"I think we are starting on the right course," he said, referring to the announcement that Bing Devine and Eddie Stanky, late of the St. Louis Cardinals, had joined the Mets' front office. Devine will be an assistant to President George Weiss and Stanky will be in charge of player development.

"Certainly we have improved," said Stengel. "We

Television and Radio

NEW ORK (AP) — "To tell the truth," a Monday night fixture on CBS, Monday night produced a "standby" team of contestants which has attended every taping of the evening show for the past four years — 207 performances — without ever being called upon for emergency duty.

The team consisted of a monkey-house keeper in a zoo and two well-coached and convincing liars and all were discharged with thanks. Their long service, however, pointed up the fact that this good-humored low-key game program has been quietly perking along for a lot longer than many of the bigger, noisier, more elaborate television shows.

The panel usually consists of two who were with the show almost from the outset, Tom Poston, an engaging and quick-witted young man, and Kitty Carlisle, whose handsome clothes add something extra for women viewers; Peggy Cass, a funny, bright woman with an enormous fund of off-beat information, and Orson Bean, the panel's naughty boy but often a little too cute and windy.

The Miss America pageant on CBS earlier this month turned up at the top of the latest Nielsen list of popular programs. This is an annual phenomenon. The rating service estimated that more than 21 million homes were watching Van- da Van Dyke weep at the happy news. "Beverly Hillsbillies" and "Bonanza" were second and third. Only one new program made the Nielsen honor roll — NBC's "The Rogues," in seventh place.

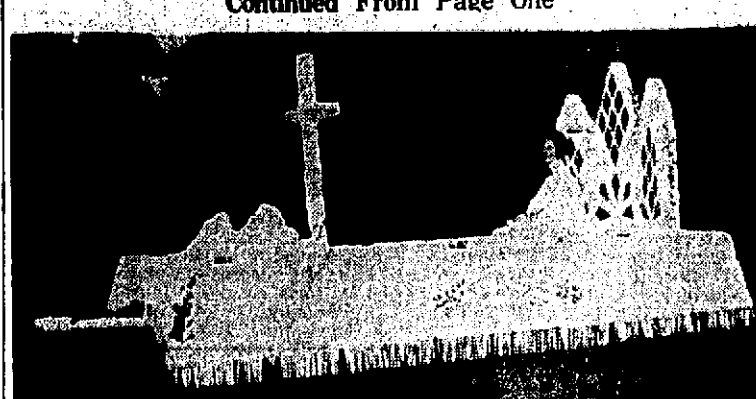

Lucille Ball has persuaded screen star Jean Arthur, long in retirement, to guest-star in an episode of her comedy show. The series will use more guest stars than usual this season, partly because Vivian Vance has indicated she'd like to take life a little easier.

Successful Plastic

First successful plastic substance was discovered a century ago, when a manufacturer of billiard balls offered a $10,000 reward to anyone who would produce an adequate substitute for natural ivory, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.
